1 INTRODUCTION

1.1 Background

- (a) Collecting Societies in Australia provide a range of valuable services to both Members and Licensees. By administering copyright or the resale royalty right or both on behalf of Members, Collecting Societies:
 - (i) promote the creation and dissemination of copyright material;
 - (ii) represent the interests of creators and owners of copyright material;
 - (iii) make it easier for people to obtain permission to use copyright material;
 - (iv) streamline the process of collecting remuneration and/or licence fees for the use of copyright material; and
 - (v) reduce the transaction costs for both Members and Licensees associated with the use and exploitation of copyright material.
- (b) Each Collecting Society aspires to:
 - (i) achieve best practice in the conduct of its operations;
 - (ii) be responsive to the needs of Members and Licensees;
 - (iii) ensure transparency and accountability in the conduct of its operations; and
 - (iv) achieve efficiency in the process of allocating and distributing payments to Members.
- (c) In recognition of the services they provide, Collecting Societies expect that:
 - (i) Licensees and other users of copyright material will respect the rights of the creators and owners of that material, and in particular their right to receive fair payment for the use and exploitation of copyright material; and
 - (ii) Licensees and other users of copyright material will use that material only in accordance with:
 - A. the terms of a licence or other permission; and/or
 - B. the Copyright Act 1968, the Copyright Regulations, any other applicable legislation, relevant decisions of courts or tribunals (including the Copyright Tribunal), and other binding legal requirements, conditions or guidelines.
- (d) This Code of Conduct is intended to provide greater protections for both Members and Licensees, and to facilitate the efficient, effective and fair operations of Collecting Societies.

1.2 Scope

This Code applies to those Collecting Societies that have agreed to be bound by the Code, as defined at clause 6.1.

1.3 Objectives

The objectives of this Code are to facilitate efficient and fair outcomes for members and licensees by:

- (a) promoting awareness of and access to information about copyright or the resale royalty right or both and the role and function of Collecting Societies in administering copyright or the resale royalty right or both on behalf of Members;
- (b) promoting confidence in Collecting Societies and the effective administration of copyright or the resale royalty right or both in Australia;

- (c) setting out the standards of service that Members and Licensees can expect from Collecting Societies; and
- (d) ensuring that Members and Licensees have access to efficient, fair and low-cost procedures for the handling of Complaints and the resolution of Disputes involving Collecting Societies.

2 OBLIGATIONS OF COLLECTING SOCIETIES

2.1 Legal Framework

- (a) This Code is one element of a broader legal and regulatory framework within which Collecting Societies operate. This Code sets minimum standards for the conduct of Collecting Societies and complements the following regulatory instruments, which each Collecting Society will comply with:
 - (i) the Corporations Act 2001 and the Corporations Regulations;
 - (ii) the Copyright Act 1968 and the Copyright Regulations;
 - (iii) its Constitution;
 - (iv) the Attorney-General's Guidelines for Declared Collecting Societies (where applicable);
 - (v) its obligations under the Privacy Act 1988, including the Australian Privacy Principles, or any Privacy Code that applies to the Collecting Society;
 - (vi) in the case of the declared Collecting Society under that Act, the Resale Royalty Right for Visual Artists Act 2009; and
 - (vii) any other applicable legislation, relevant decisions of courts or tribunals (including the Copyright Tribunal), and other binding legal requirements, conditions or guidelines that apply to the Collecting Society.
- (b) The Code does not apply to matters that are covered by the jurisdiction of the Copyright Tribunal of Australia, such as the determination of licence fees payable.

2.2 Members

- (a) The membership of a Collecting Society will be open to all eligible creators of copyright material, and to anyone who owns or controls copyright material or the resale royalty right or both, in accordance with the Constitution of the Collecting Society.
- (b) Each Collecting Society will treat its Members fairly, honestly, impartially, courteously, and in accordance with its Constitution and any Membership Agreement.
- (c) Each Collecting Society will ensure that its dealings with Members are transparent.
- (d) Each Collecting Society will provide a copy of its Constitution to a Member at the time that the Member first joins the Collecting Society, or at any time on request. A Collecting Society will also provide a copy of its Constitution to a potential Member on request.

2.3 Licensees

- (a) Each Collecting Society will treat Licensees fairly, honestly, impartially, courteously, and in accordance with its Constitution and any licence agreement.
- (b) Each Collecting Society will ensure that its dealings with Licensees are transparent.
- (c) Each Collecting Society will:
 - (i) make available to Licensees and potential Licensees information about the licences or

- licence schemes offered by the Collecting Society, including the terms and conditions applying to them, and about the manner in which the Collecting Society collects remuneration and/or licence fees for the use of copyright material; and
- (ii) to the extent it reasonably can, having regard to the complexity of the questions of fact and law necessarily involved, take steps to ensure that all licences offered by the Collecting Society are drafted so as to be plainly understandable to Licensees, and are accompanied by practical and suitable explanatory material.
- (d) Each Collecting Society's policies, procedures and conduct in connection with the setting of licence fees for the use of copyright material will be fair and reasonable. In setting or negotiating such licence fees, a Collecting Society may have regard to the following matters:
- (i) the value of the copyright material;
 - (ii) the purpose for which, and the context in which, the copyright material is used;
 - (iii) the manner or kind of use of the Copyright Material;
 - (iv) any relevant decisions of the Copyright Tribunal; and
 - (v) any other relevant matters.
- (e) The Collecting Societies acknowledge the important role played by relevant industry associations in relation to the formulation of terms and conditions applying to licences or licence schemes offered by some Collecting Societies.
- (f) Each Collecting Society will where appropriate consult in good faith with relevant industry associations in relation to the terms and conditions applying to licences or licence schemes offered by the Collecting Society.
- (g) Each Collecting Society will, in response to a reasonable request, make available to a Licensee or potential Licensee:
- (i) the methodology for calculating the licence fees applicable to that Licensee or potential Licensee; and
 - (ii) matters taken into consideration in determining the licence fee to the extent that such information is not commercial-in-confidence and does not otherwise directly affect a commercial negotiation between the Collecting Society and the Licensee or potential Licensee.
- The Code Compliance Reviewer is able to consider whether a request or a Collecting Society's response to it has been reasonable.
- (h) A Collecting Society may not unreasonably refuse a request from a Licensee to engage in an alternative dispute resolution (ADR) process in respect of a licensing dispute. Whether a Collecting Society has acted reasonably in response to a request made pursuant to this clause is a matter for consideration by the Code Compliance Reviewer in their annual report on the Collecting Societies' compliance with the Code.

2.4 Distribution of Remuneration and Licence Fees

- (a) Each Collecting Society will maintain, and make available to Members on request, a distribution policy that sets out from time to time:

 - (ii) the manner and frequency of payments to Members; and
 - (iii) the general nature of amounts that will be deducted from Revenue before distribution.

- (b) Each Collecting Society will distribute payments to its Members in accordance with its Constitution and distribution policy.
- (c) Each Collecting Society will, in response to a reasonable request by a Licensee or their representative, provide more detailed information about particular rights payments made pursuant to a licence. Such information should only be provided to the extent that it is not commercial-in-confidence and does not otherwise directly affect a commercial negotiation between the Collecting Society and the Licensee or potential Licensee. Such information is to be provided:
 - (i) on an anonymised basis; and

The Code Compliance Reviewer is able to consider whether a request or a Collecting Society's response to it has been reasonable.

The Code Compliance Reviewer will be appointed for a minimum period of three years.
- (c) The functions of the Code Compliance Reviewer are:

5.2 Annual Compliance Monitoring and Reporting

The published versions of the reports will include summaries of any Complaints without identifying any of the people involved, and will exclude any information that is confidential, commercial-in-confidence or that identifies individual Members or Licensees.
- (f) The Code Compliance Reviewer may, subject to the terms of this paragraph, receive and consider Complaints from Members or Licensees to the effect that a Complaint made by the Member or Licensee to the Collecting Society under clause 3 of this Code was not addressed in the manner required by clause 3(c) of the Code.
- (g) Upon receipt of a Complaint from a Member or a Licensee of the type referred to in paragraph (f) above, the Code Compliance Reviewer must:
- (i) request of the complainant sufficient information and documentation as to the specific breaches alleged as may be required to elucidate the nature of the Complaint;
 - (ii) provide the relevant Collecting Society with full details of the Complaint as so elucidated and allow the Collecting Society a reasonable period within which to provide a response;
 - (iii) to the extent that the Collecting Society's response makes allegations against the complainant, provide full details of that response to the complainant and allow the complainant a reasonable time within which to reply to those allegations.

- namely,
 - (i) whether it is wholly or partly justified;
 - (ii) whether it is wholly or partly unjustified; or
 - (iii) whether some other view is appropriate and if so, what view and for what reason;
- and inform the complainant and the Collecting Society of that view, making such recommendations as may be appropriate in the circumstances. If the Code Compliance

Reviewer considers it appropriate, he or she may also report on that Complaint in the annual report produced pursuant to paragraph (i).

- (i) Following his or her consultations, and consideration of the Collecting Societies' reports, the Code Compliance Reviewer will prepare annually a report on compliance generally by Collecting Societies with this Code, and on steps taken to improve the capture and exploitation of data to achieve better business practices. The Code Compliance Reviewer will make a copy of the report available to:
 - (i) each Collecting Society;
 - (ii) the Commonwealth Department(s) responsible for the administration of the Copyright Act 1968;
 - (iii) each individual or group that made a submission to the Code Compliance Reviewer; and
 - (iv) members of the public.

5.3 Review and Recommendations for Amendment of the Code

- (a) This Code will be reviewed:
 - (i) in 2021; and
 - (ii) at least once within each subsequent three-year period.
- (b) For the purposes of a Review of the Code, the Triennial Code Reviewer will:
 - (i) invite written submissions on the operation of the Code and on any amendments that are necessary or desirable to improve the operation of the Code;
 - (ii) convene and publicise widely, during the period in which submissions may be made, one or more meetings that Members, Licensees and the general public may attend to make oral submissions to the Review; and

- (f) The Triennial Code Reviewer will make a copy of the report of the Review available to:

 - (ii) notify the Triennial Code Reviewer of their decision and the reasons for it including reasons why any recommendations have not been adopted; and
 - (iii) if their response requires amendments to the Code, the Collecting Societies will make those amendments within 60 days from the delivery of the report to them by the Triennial Code Reviewer.
- (b) The Collecting Societies may make amendments to the Code that have not been recommended by the Triennial Code Reviewer, provided those amendments are consistent with clause 1.1(d) and follow consultations with Members and Licensees.
